

Hampton Research values your health and well-being and understands that we have all been directly impacted by COVID-19 both locally and globally.

Hampton Research is continuing operation as an essential business exemption under one or more of the Critical Infrastructure Sectors, CISA U.S. Department of Homeland Security, supplying specialty chemicals and related research materials to scientists within government, academic, pharma, biotech, and diagnostic healthcare related sectors, including those working on COVID-19.

Hampton Research has measures in place to ensure your orders will continue to be received, processed and shipped. We have adjusted our operations to monitor and comply with guidelines and precautions given by health departments and government agencies.

We are committed to providing the products you need, as well as continued customer service and technical support so that your laboratory workflow is minimally impacted or interrupted during this extraordinary moment in time. Our top priority is to ensure the health and safety of our employees, and all those who engage our company.

We ask you to inform us about any changes you may have recently put in place, or special needs related to COVID-19 and how we work together.

Please contact us with any questions or concerns, we are here to help.
